Council Member Holmes congratulated the Public Works Department on the Clean Air Award for Sustainability. He also said he would like to have another city volunteer appreciation event this year.

COUNCIL BUSINESS

8. Leadership Auburn Presentation

Don Ales, of Leadership Auburn 2013 introduced this item. He gave a brief overview of this year's class project to improve the entry to the Gold County Fairgrounds, off High Street. The presentation is available in the permanent record.

Cody Carpino gave a presentation of the design elements of the project and Mike Emmert gave a presentation of the sign and lighting elements.

Don Ales then provided a conclusion highlighting much of the support they have received from the community for their project.

Council Member questions followed regarding budget, the insurance on the damaged entry sign, sponsor signage, and signage to list upcoming events.

Council Member comments followed regarding support of the project. They commended this years' class on an ambitious project.

Kathleen Harris, resident of Auburn, asked about the history of the architecture of the stone columns at the fairground entrance.

Bob Snyder, resident of Auburn, said this is the best and most creative class in Leadership Auburn history. He said they are tackling the most expensive project completely on their own. He suggested the City waive any fees if applicable on this project.

9. City Clerk's Office Update

City Clerk Stephanie Snyder presented this item. She highlighted new projects the City Clerk's office are working on including a Fast News publication and modernizing systems in the Council Chambers. She said a project the Clerk's office hopes to begin soon is document management system with agenda management software.

Council Member questions followed regarding the video streaming of the meeting and the distribution of Fast News.

Council Member Holmes asked about scanning permanent records so that the physical copies could eventually be transferred to Placer County Archives for safe keeping.

Council Member comments followed regarding support of the modernization efforts and related funding.

Mayor Hanley asked about other cities and what they are doing for agenda/ document management.

Deputy City Clerk Amy Lind said she has a large network of clerks in California that she can pull from to survey on systems, how they work, why they work, etc.

Mayor Hanley said he likes the message being delivered by Fast News and would like color copies printed out so that he can hand them out when talking with the community. He spoke in favor of the agenda management system and making items more available to the public.

REPORTS

10. City Council Committee Reports

Council Member Kirby reflected on all the work done in regards to the Regional Sewer and thanked Bernie Schroeder, Andy Heath, their support staff and the county staff on all the hard work put into this project. He said he still feels it is a positive project; just not the right time for Auburn. He reported that he is enrolled in the Auburn Police Department Citizens Awareness Academy and encouraged people to enroll in future academies.

Council Member Bridget Powers reported that on April 11th the Auburn Airport Business Park Association will be holding their monthly meeting at the Pilots Lounge. She also reported that on April 4th from 5pm-6pm there will be a tile dedication in Central Square in memory of Annabell McCord.

Council Member Holmes reported on the AAUW Trivia Bee held last weekend. He reported on a meeting he had with the California Welcome Center and the work he will be doing on his future trip to China to encourage travel to Auburn. He reported on the Placer County Air Pollution Control District Clean Air Grant focused on Bicycle Safety.

Council Member Nesbitt reported on activities that the Economic Development Commission is focusing on including the tourist industry. He also reported that the Placer County Transportation Planning Agency board meeting was moved to April 10th. He reported on the Union Pacific decision which eliminated the opportunity of a second train to Auburn. He also congratulated Victor Pecoraro on his promotion to Lieutenant.
